"ALL NIGHT TEACH-IN"
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
JULY 14, 1965

DECLASSIFIED BY 9803 rdd/hcy
ON 8/22/92
COMP # 318309

The July 12, 1965 edition of the "Harvard Summer News", which is published twice weekly under the auspices of the Harvard University Summer School, contained an article captioned "12 Will Lecture At 'Teach-In'." The article stated the speakers would "rake the Johnson Administration over the coals in an all-night session in Sanders Theater", Harvard University, July 14, 1965.

Continuing, it stated that David A. Smith, one of the organizers of the "Teach-In", said that various Harvard faculty members had been asked to defend United States policy in the Far East and in the Dominican Republic but had declined. Smith noted that several attempts had been made also to attract a State Department speaker to defend the Johnson Administration policy in the Caribbean.

The speakers were scheduled as follows:

- 8:00 p.m. - Banks McDowell, Professor of Law, Boston University
- 8:30 p.m. - Staughton Lynd, Assistant Professor of History, Yale University
- 9:30 p.m. - Norman Mailer, novelist
- 10:15 p.m. - Salvador Luria, Professor of Biology, Boston University
- 10:35 p.m. - I. F. Stone
- 11:20 p.m. - Robert Zevin, Harvard graduate student
- 11:45 p.m. - Stephen Rosenthal, Harvard graduate student

"ALL NIGHT TEACH-IN"
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
JULY 14, 1965

- 12:15 a.m. - Jerome Grossman '36, Chairman, Massachusetts Political Action for Peace
- 12:45 a.m. - Noam Chomsky, Research Fellow in Cognitive Studies
- 1:05 a.m. - Edwin Moise, James Bryant Conant Professor of Mathematics and Education
- 1:35 a.m. - Alan Gilbert '65, an official of the Harvard Chapter of the May Second Movement
- 2:15 a.m. - Howard Zinn, Assistant Professor of Government, Boston University
- 3:30 a.m. - Seminars

On July 13, 1965, sources one and two, who have furnished reliable information in the past, advised that the prime initiator of the scheduled "Teach-In" was the Harvard-Radcliffe Chapter, Students For a Democratic Society, (SDS).

Source one stated that the Harvard-Radcliffe Chapter, SDS, is the only student organization which, he understood, had been approved by Harvard authorities to function during the 1965 Summer School session. It was his understanding that Harvard officials had insisted that in order to function, the group should provide a list of individual members of the SDS willing to petition Harvard for authorization to function as a Harvard-approved student organization comprised of duly-registered students in the current summer school session. Together with this, the organization was required to submit the name of a faculty member willing to serve as a faculty advisor. The organization met these two basic requirements and was duly recognized by Harvard University. Source one stated Martin H. Peretz, Teaching Fellow in Government, Harvard University, became the faculty advisor of the group.

On July 14, 1965, source three, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that [] a Harvard College undergraduate who had been on official leave from Harvard College for a year or more, together with a Tufts University undergraduate, [] had been the prime movers in initiating the "Teach-In" and in obtaining official permission to have it take place on Harvard University property.

"ALL NIGHT TEACH-IN"
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
JULY 14, 1965

Publicly distributed in Harvard Square, Cambridge, during the evening of July 13, 1965, was a circular entitled "All Night Teach-In" which set out the tentative program, the listed speakers, and which set out excerpts of statements from former president Dwight D. Eisenhower, Senator Wayne Morse and Thomas Jefferson to answer the questions "Why didn't the U. S. allow free elctions?" and "Who are we fighting against?". The article quoted Thomas Jefferson as follows: "If a nation expects to be ignorant and free, in a state of civilization, it expects what never was and never will be."

The stated purpose of the "Teach-In" was "To dispel public ignorance of our policies in Vietnam and in the Dominican Republic and to encourage democratic debate on those crucial issues are the purposes of this teach-in."

Listed among the sponsoring organizations were:

PAX
May 2nd Committee
Students For a Democratic Society
B. U. Students for Peace
Boston Faculty-Student Committee to End the War in Vietnam

A characterization of the May 2 Movement is set out in the appendix hereto.

Sources two and three advised on July 15, 1965 that they understood Harvard authorities had been highly perturbed concerning the information set out in the above-mentioned circular that organizations other than the approved SDS had been listed as co-sponsors of the "teach-in" and, inferentially, had no doubt taken part in the preparations and planning of the event itself. These sources stated Harvard officials had felt that SDS had not kept faith with Harvard in this matter by introducing into "teach-in" activities organizations and individuals over whom Harvard has no control and who may not be held accountable to Harvard authorities should any unpleasant developments occur from the "teach-in."

"ALL NIGHT TEACH-IN"
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
JULY 14, 1965

The sources pointed out that actually no incidents had developed at the "teach-in", attendance at which had exceeded the estimates of the Harvard Community. They noted that when Sanders Theater was filled to capacity, the Lowell Lecture Hall was then opened so that the speeches could be piped into that hall. This latter hall was then filled to capacity also, and several hundred persons clamored outside each building seeking admission unsuccessfully, at least until a very late hour in the night or early morning.

Both sources noted that proceedings had been uneventful and that there was no disorder, scuffles or altercations, up to 1:30 a.m.

Source three stated he felt he could understand the concern of Harvard authorities at the introduction of various outside organizations into the activities of the "teach-in" when he noticed that a group, which he recalled as the Young Socialist Alliance, had set up a table outside the hall. On this table was literature for distribution, which source three felt was Young Socialist Alliance propaganda pure and simple. He said that one person he knew at the table was [redacted] a former Brandeis University student, believed by source three to be a graduate student in the Boston area. This source stated he has been told that Harvard will protest to Steven Johnson the introduction of such elements into the "teach-in" proceedings. He recalled also that a white male, aged approximately 50 years, clad in a blue polo jersey had also distributed what he felt was "leftist propaganda" outside Harvard buildings at the time of the "teach-in." The source stated he was unable to identify the man or the literature he had passed out.

b6

A characterization of the Young Socialist Alliance is set out in the appendix hereto

The source stated that Harvard University police and officials had showed great concern when some individuals in the crowd outside the two packed halls began pounding on the doors and windows seeking admission. He felt that evidently Harvard personnel had reasoned there was a possibility that violence might develop and that a Harvard Dean had spoken to [redacted] and Martin Peretz to calm down a situation which might assume riotous proportions.

"ALL NIGHT TEACH-IN"

The Harvard dean had stated there was present a potential for violence and pointed to the three the advantage of heading off any incidents leading to violence. The three then went among the crowd and quieted several noisy individuals.

The third source stated he had heard the speeches of Staughton Lynd, Reverend Dana McLean Greeley, Howard Zinn, Norman Mailer, I. F. Stone and the introductory remarks of Martin Peretz, Chairman. The source felt that the speakers had been more than vehement in their denunciations of American policy in Vietnam and in the Dominican Republic and had been especially vituperative in their comments concerning President Johnson's handling of these emergencies.

In its edition of July 15, 1965, the "Boston Herald", a metropolitan daily newspaper, estimated the audience at over 2000 persons. It quoted Chairman Martin Peretz as claiming the turnout "was more than twice as good as that for McGeorge Bundy last month, when the special assistant to President Johnson defended U. S. policy in an appearance at Harvard." The article went on to note that "The first speakers of the evening devoted most of their talks to sometimes violent denunciations of President Johnson."

Novelist Norman Mailer was quoted as stating "The great fear that lies upon America is not that Lyndon Johnson is privately close to insanity so much as that he is the expression of the near-insanity of most of us, and his need for action is America's need for action; not brave action, but action; any kind of action; any move to get the motors going."

Staughton Lynd was quoted as follows: "...if this man Johnson is really irresponsible and out of control there is a clear and present necessity that he be removed." He described President Johnson as "vain, stubborn and parochially minded." He made the point also that "...individuals had a moral responsibility to disassociate themselves from the Vietnam war as much as possible to the point where a man must decide whether he will 'not serve in the army, not pay taxes and not work on government contracts'."

"ALL NIGHT TEACH-IN"
HARVARD UNIVERSITY
JULY 14, 1965

The "Harvard Summer News" in its edition of July 15, 1965 stated more than 2000 persons had flooded Sanders Theater, Lowell Lecture Hall and the surrounding area the previous evening "to hear Norman Mailer, I. F. Stone and other speakers berate administration policy in Vietnam." The item identified the first half of Mailer's speech as "a personal attack on Johnson."

It added that Mailer pleaded for an end to the Cold War. He claimed that the fighting in Vietnam is a civil war, and that "our intervention was unasked." Also, that "We were there in violation of a treaty, we were there trying to defend countries that had, in effect, already fallen."

Staughton Lynd, according to the article, in calling for the resignation was quoted as stating that "The gossip in the Washington cocktail circuit is that LBJ is going the way of Humphrey Bogart in the Caine Mutiny. Lynd said, "quoting 'a friend of mine who worked in McGeorge Bundy's office; He thinks Johnson is going to fake an incident'."

The article went on to state that I. F. Stone condemned the emotionalism of the speakers preceding him: Stone stated "But we can't go before the country, vilify the President and expect to persuade anybody." He held that "...undemocratic processes have governed our foreign policy. For democracy to work in foreign affairs, the peace movement must be sensibly organized..."

Stone called for "a withdrawal of American troops, a cease fire for 18 months or two years under the auspices of an international commission agreeable to both sides, and then free elections in both North and South Vietnam, with Communists permitted to run."

The news item commented also that hundreds of persons sat on the grass around Sanders Theater trying to get in. They were addressed by Howard Zinn and Banks McDowell. McDowell in his own speech within Sanders Theater praised the "teach-in" movement. Professor Howard Zinn in his speech compared President Johnson's behavior with that of Alabama Governor George Wallace and claimed the United States had become "a great power by 'fraud, deceit, and violence', and charged that liberal Presidents had been 'the great criminals' of American history."

In 1951, another source who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that while an active member of the CP, he had been associated with numerous Communist front organizations. Source recalled that while in the Party, and attending many of the functions of these Communist front groups, he had met Stone and had observed Stone in attendance at some of these meetings. From this he considered Stone to be a Communist because only members of the CP were permitted to attend meetings of these front groups.

Robert Zevin

"The Harvard Crimson," an undergraduate daily newspaper published daily at Cambridge, Massachusetts, in its edition of April 21, 1961, identified Robert B. Zevin, a then first-year graduate student, as a member of the Boston Chapter, Fair Play For Cuba Committee.

The "New York Times," a metropolitan daily newspaper, in its edition of May 10, 1961, published "An Open Letter To President Kennedy," signed by numerous educators from the Greater Boston area, among them Noam Chomsky, Associate Professor of Modern Language, Massachusetts Institute of Technology (MIT), advocating non-military intervention by the United States in Cuba; the giving of no further support for the invasion of Cuba by exile groups; the detachment of the Castro regime from the Communist bloc by working for a military detente and a resumption of trade relations. b6 b7C

On January 15, 1953, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past advised that in December, 1952, [redacted] then residing at [redacted] Jamaica Plain, Massachusetts, forwarded to the Independent Socialist League Headquarters, New York City, a change of address notice and a request for the Labor Action book list.

On August 31, 1956, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past stated the mailing list of Labor Action issue of September 3, 1956, included [redacted] [redacted] Cambridge, Massachusetts.

[redacted]

On May 5, 1965, a source who has furnished reliable information in the past, identified [redacted] a member of the Harvard College Class of 1965, as a member of the Harvard-Radcliffe Chapter, May Two Movement.

Howard Zinn

On June 12, 1957, a source, contact with whom has been insufficient to determine reliability, but who admitted Communist Party membership from about 1948 to about the middle of 1953 in the Manhattan-Brooklyn area, New York City, stated that some time in 1949, he was transferred to the Williamsburg Section of the Communist Party in Brooklyn, New York, and that Howard Zinn was already a member of that section.

The source stated it was his impression that Zinn was not a new member but had been in the Communist Party for some time. He further advised that he was a member of the Communist Party until the summer of 1953, and that while during this time he was not a member of the same branch of the Party as Zinn, he was a member of the same section. He stated he attended numerous section meetings with Zinn between the years 1949 and the summer of 1953.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, on May 11, 1961, advised that [REDACTED] a graduate student at Harvard University, was active in the formative stages of the Cuban Protest Committee (CPC).

A second source on May 11, 1961, stated that the CPC stemmed initially from a protest meeting held at Emerson Hall, Harvard University, on April 26, 1961, and that [REDACTED] Professor of History, Harvard University, was the initiator of the group and was responsible for the circulation of a letter to Harvard faculty members asking money for the CPC.

This source expressed the personal opinion that the CPC would die out inasmuch as its primary purpose of raising money for placing an advertisement in "The New York Times" had been met.

By means of a pretext by a Special Agent of the FBI on May 14, 1961, it was determined that, according to [redacted] the CPC had been formed by a group of individuals in Cambridge, graduate school and junior Harvard faculty members, who were interested in protesting American military intervention in Cuba; that the CPC had no reason for existing other than to submit its protest and is not connected with any other organizations; that the individuals interested in it are primarily and basically those working in the educational field. It was also determined that inasmuch as the primary purpose for organizing the CPC was to obtain money for the pacing of an advertisement in "The New York Times", there would be little or no further activity by the CPC.

The "Jerusalem Post", an Israeli newspaper, in its edition of July 29, 1962 carried an article captioned "Harvard Lecturer Charges United States Soblen Court Unfair." This article, datelined at Tel Aviv, in part read "Allegations that the trial of Dr. Robert Soblen by a Federal Court in the United States last September was a 'miscarriage of justice' were made here yesterday by Mr. Martin Peretz, a Teaching Fellow in Government at Harvard University.

"Mr. Peretz made this charge in an interview with the 'Jerusalem Post' at the Sheraton Hotel last night. He said he was prompted to do some personal research into the court archives of the case following the renewed spate of publicity given to the case recently."

The "Jerusalem Post" in its July 30, 1962 edition published a letter captioned "FBI Mislead Soblen Judge", dated July 29, 1962 at Tel Aviv and signed "Martin Peretz, Teaching Fellow in Government, Harvard University." This letter referred to the interview of Peretz published on July 29, 1962 and specifically to one Hans Hirschfeld and the alleged withholding of information concerning Hirschfeld at the Soblen trial.

The "Record-American", a daily Boston newspaper, in its September 12, 1962 edition carried an article "Death 'Commutes' Soblen's Life Term." This article in part read "Runaway Soviet spy Dr. Robert A. Soblen died yesterday in convulsions, five days after lapsing into a coma from a self-administered overdose of barbiturates, in an ambulance taking him to London Airport for deportation to the United States."

The February 9, 1962 issue of the "Cornell Daily Sun," a daily student newspaper published at Cornell University, Ithaca, New York, contained an announcement concerning a peace march at Washington, D. C. from February 16-18, 1962. This item stated that student peace groups throughout the nation will participate and the march is being coordinated by "Turn Toward Peace," a group composed of persons representing organizations devoted to a peaceful solution of the Cold War. Cornell SANE is listed as the sponsoring group at Cornell.

On February 12, 1962, a third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that a meeting was held at Willard Straight Hall, Cornell Campus, Friday afternoon, February 9, 1962, by the Cornell Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy (SANE) for the purpose of discussing this Washington peace march, which was identified by the name "Student Action for a Turn Toward Peace, Washington Project, February 16-17-1962." This meeting consisted of a speech by an individual who identified himself as Martin Peretz, a graduate student at Harvard University and faculty advisor of Young Americans for Freedom at Harvard. Peretz stated that he was making a tour of several campuses for the purpose of discussing this Washington peace march. He discussed the peace issue at quite some length and reviewed the movement's policy statement, which urges the United States not to resume atmospheric testing and not to extend nuclear arms to nations which do not already have them.

Peretz gave detailed instructions as to the manner of dress and personal deportment while in Washington.

APPENDIX

FAIR PLAY FOR CUBA COMMITTEE

The April 6, 1960, edition of "The New York Times" newspaper contained a full-page advertisement captioned "What is Really Happening in Cuba," placed by the Fair Play for Cuba Committee (FPCC). This advertisement announced the formation of the FPCC in New York City and declared the FPCC intended to promulgate "the truth about revolutionary Cuba" to neutralize the distorted American press.

"The New York Times" edition of January 11, 1961, reported that at a hearing conducted before the United States Senate Internal Security Subcommittee on January 10, 1961, Dr. Charles A. Santos-Buch identified himself and Robert Taber as organizers of the FPCC. He also testified he and Taber obtained funds from the Cuban Government which were applied toward the cost of the aforementioned advertisement.

On May 16, 1963, a source advised that during the first two years of the FPCC's existence there was a struggle between Communist Party (CP) and Socialist Workers Party (SWP) elements to exert their power within the FPCC and thereby influence FPCC policy. This source added that during the past year there had been a successful effort by FPCC leadership to minimize the role of these and other organizations in the FPCC so that their influence as of May, 1963 was negligible.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

On May 20, 1963, a second source advised that Vincent "Ted" Lee, FPCC National Office Director, was then formulating FPCC policy and had indicated that he had no intention of permitting FPCC policy to be determined by any other organization. This source stated that Lee believed that the FPCC should advocate resumption of diplomatic relations between Cuba and the United States and should support the right of Cubans to manage their revolution without interference from other nations. Lee did not advocate supporting the Cuba revolution per se.

The November 23, 1963, edition of "The New York Times" reported that Senator Thomas J. Dodd of Connecticut had called FPCC "the chief public relations instrument of the Castro network in the United States." It is to be noted that Senator Dodd was a member of the Senate Internal Security Subcommittee which twice conducted hearings on the FPCC.

The December 27, 1963, edition of "The New York World Telegram and Sun" newspaper stated that the pro-Castro FPCC was seeking to go out of business and that its prime activity during its lifetime had been sponsorship of pro-Castro street rallies and mass picket lines, and the direction of an active propaganda mill highlighting illegal travel-to-Cuba campaigns. Its comparatively brief span of life was attributed to mounting anti-Castro American public opinion, the 1962 Congressional hearings which disclosed FPCC financing by Castro's United Nations Delegation, and ultimately, the bad publicity which the FPCC received from disclosure of activities on its behalf by suspected presidential assassin Lee H. Oswald.

On February 6, 1964, a third source advised that there had not been any FPCC activity in many months and that the FPCC had been dissolved.

INDEPENDENT SOCIALIST LEAGUE (ISL)

FORMERLY WORKERS PARTY (WP)

"The May 4, 1942, issue of 'Labor Action,' then an official publication of the Workers Party (WP), carried an article which reflected that the WP was formed in April, 1940, as a result of a split within the leadership of the Socialist Workers Party (SWP). The article stated that when the Hitler-Stalin Pact was signed and Poland invaded, the minority group within the SWP, in proclaiming the formation of the WP, condemned the pact as being imperialistic in nature and stated it would not support either imperialist camp.

"The April 25, 1949, issue of 'Labor Action' contained an account of the Fifth National Convention of the WP, held March 24-27, 1949, in New York City, which reflected the change of name of the organization from the WP to the Independent Socialist League (ISL) in order to emphasize the character of the group as a propaganda group for the spreading of socialist ideas and not as a full-fledged political party.

"The July 14, 1958, issue of 'Labor Action,' an official publication of the ISL, contained an article captioned 'The ISL Program in Brief.' The article indicated: 'The ISL stands for socialist democracy and against the two systems of exploitation which now divide the world; capitalism and Stalinism. The ISL, as a Marxist movement, looks to the working class and its ever-present struggle as the basic progressive force in society. The ISL is organized to spread the ideas of socialism in the labor movement and among all other sections of the people. There can be no lasting and genuine democracy without socialism and there can be no socialism without democracy.'

"The September 22, 1958, issue of 'Labor Action' contained an undated statement signed by the Political Committee of the ISL which indicated that the ISL had been dissolved. The statement urged former ISL members to join the Socialist Party - Social Democratic Federation.

MAY 2 MOVEMENT (M2M):
Formerly Known As May 2 Committee

A source advised on March 3, 1965, as follows:

The M2M is the name now used by the May 2 Committee which was organized on March 14, 1964, at New Haven, Connecticut, by a group of young people participating in a symposium "Socialism in America" being held at Yale University. The original aim of the M2M was to plan and execute a demonstration in New York City on May 2, 1964, demanding withdrawal of United States troops from Vietnam.

The M2M is dominated and controlled by the Progressive Labor Movement (PLM) and has for its aim and purpose the embarrassment of the United States Government by meetings, rallies, picketing demonstrations and formation of university level clubs at which a Marxist-Leninist oriented approach and analysis is taken of United States domestic and foreign policies.

The M2M has no fixed location which serves as a headquarters; however, Post Office Box 153, Village Station, New York, New York, is utilized as a mailing address.

APPENDIX IV

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May 1960 issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October 1957 in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

ISIDOR FEINSTEIN STONE

On July 20, 1965, the passport file of the captioned individual maintained at the Passport Office, United States Department of State, Washington, D.C., was reviewed. The file disclosed the following information:

Passport C-562102, which was issued to Mr. Stone on July 12, 1962, was renewed by the Passport Office on June 14, 1965. This passport is now valid until July 11, 1967. It is not valid for travel to Albania, Cuba and those portions of China, Korea and Viet-Nam under communist control.

The renewal application for passport was submitted by Mr. Stone on June 2, 1965, at Washington, D.C. In his application he indicated he intended to depart from the United States on July 21, 1965, for four weeks- pleasure travel to Italy, Switzerland, France and "perhaps England." He advised he would leave the United States via ship "Olympia" and return from abroad by air.

Mr. Stone gave his permanent residence as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N.W., Washington, D.C. Mrs. Walter Gilbert, daughter, 107 Upland Road, Cambridge, Massachusetts, was listed as the person to be notified in the event of death or accident.

The following physical description of Mr. Stone was contained in his passport file:

Big Turnout Expected for 5th Ave. March

MORE THAN 180,000 leaflets have already been distributed containing the call for the peace parade this Saturday at 1:30 p.m., it was announced at the weekend by the Committee for the Fifth Avenue Vietnam Peace

Parade, of 5 Beekman Place. An extra printing of more than 50,000 leaflets was being rushed, the committee said, in response to a demand which indicates a growing interest in the parade.

The parade, which will begin at 94th Street and Fifth Avenue, at 1:30 p.m., and march to 68th Street, will wind up with a mass rally at 3 p.m.

A police permit has been granted for the route of the march to the committee, which was formed by about 50 N.Y.

leaders in anti-war groups in the religious, union, cultural, political, youth and civil rights fields. Similar committees in more than 60 cities in this country have prepared demonstrations this weekend against the Vietnam war. Among the organizations distributing leaflets are Women Strike for Peace, American Friends Service Committee, International Ladies Garment Workers Union rank and file, N.Y. Communist Party, Furriers Joint Board, and Social Workers for Peace.

Speakers who will address the meeting that winds up the parade in N.Y. will include Leon

Lavis, president of Local 1199 of the Drug and Hospital union; I.F. Stone, editor of I.F. Stone's Weekly; Gilberto Gerena-Valentin, president of the National Council for Puerto Rican Civil Rights; Bob Parris, of the Student Non-Violent Coordinating Committee; Dixi Bajo, of the Movement for Puerto Rican Independence; Dave Gilbert, of the N.Y. Committee to End the War in Vietnam; Rev. Philip Berri-gan, SSJ; Russ Nixon, general manager of the National Guardian; Chris Koch, WBAI station manager; and Donna Allen, a national officer of the Women Strike for Peace. Entertainment at the rally will include Len Chandler and Barbara Dane, folksingers.

Groups and organizations co-operating in the march have agreed on a single parade slogan: Stop the War in Vietnam Now. There will be a "Whitehall Speakout" against the draft and against the war in Vietnam this Friday at the Armed Forces Induction Center, 39 Whitehall St.

The "Speakout" from 4:30 to 6:30 p.m. is sponsored by the Whitehall Speakout Committee. Sunday at 12:30 p.m., there will be a workshop conference sponsored by the N.Y. Commitee to End the War in Vietnam.

HARTFORD, Conn. The Hartford-Storrs Committee to End the War in Vietnam will conduct a protest march this Saturday down Main Street, Hartford. The march will begin at 1 p.m. at the Tunnel Park in the North End, and continue down Main St. to the South Green Park where a rally will be held.

New York: Biggest anti-war rally ever in U.S.

By Jack A. Smith

THE LARGEST anti-war demonstration ever conducted in the United States took place on New York's Fifth Avenue Oct. 16 as an estimated 30,000 persons marched in opposition to American intervention in Vietnam. Attendance at the 30-block parade tripled original predictions by its sponsors. Veteran peace leader A. J. Muste, 81-year-old grand marshal of the parade, could only comment, "I've never seen anything like it." Organized around the general demand "Stop the war in Vietnam now," every peace group and every radical political or student organization in the city co-operated in the planning and in bringing its members to the parade. Clashes in political perspective and traditional liberal exclusion of the left were cast aside for the day in a united front against the war.

The parade and rally that followed were sponsored by the Committee for a Fifth Avenue Vietnam Peace Parade, an ad hoc group of 43 persons associated with almost that number of organizations, ranging from the Teachers Committee to End the War in Vietnam to the Progressive Labor Party, from the Socialist Workers Party to Women Strike for Peace. At least two unions were represented. The only peace group without a sponsor on the committee was SANE. FOR THE FIRST TIME since U.S. planes began bombing the noncombatant Democratic Republic of Vietnam last February—a development that precipitated a tremendous growth in the U.S. peace movement and has contributed to its political awareness—students did not overwhelmingly predominate at a major protest. The student movement attended the parade in force, but appeared to be equally met by adults.

The parade, first of its nature ever held on the city's traditional parade route, was punctuated at times by verbal abuse and physical violence from some of the thousands of spectators. Largely, however, the parade was peaceful, despite press reports that tended to concentrate on opposition from the sidelines. Several organized groups were on hand to heckle the demonstration, including members of the Marine Corps League, Veterans of Foreign Wars, Young Americans for Freedom and the National Renaissance Party, all right-wing organizations. Eggs, paint and punches were thrown resulting in the removal of 25 persons, four of whom were ultimately arrested. None was a peace demonstrator.

THE STAGING AREAS for the demonstration—91st to 94th Streets between Madison and Fifth Avenues—began absorbing crowds at noon. By 1:30 p.m. the area was almost too jammed to accommodate 1,000 students who arrived en masse, having marched down and across from Columbia University. At 2 p.m., when the parade began under brilliant skies, it is doubtful that room existed on the side streets for one more marcher.

The first contingent—women's and adult peace organizations and religious groups—was led by a solitary bagpiper and a huge banner reading "Stop the war in Vietnam now." Thousands of smaller signs repeated this slogan. Several persons attempted to march in front of the parade with a sign reading "Victory over communism," but were removed.

Marching eight to 12 abreast in a most unmilitary fashion, the marchers waved when spectators cheered and sought to ignore detractors. The first contingent included a brigade of babies, carriages and their mothers; elderly women with young smiles; a flock of balloons; several floats with anti-war slogans; three floats each carrying a coffin; a jazz band on a truck; and thousands of members of WSP, SANE, Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and other groups.

FOLLOWING WERE: community and political groups and trade unions. A Puerto Rican flag and an enormous banner in Spanish, held by members of the Movement for Puerto Rican Independence, led this contingent. Behind them were unionists from Local 1199 of the Hospital Workers. Two flags of the National Liberation Front of South Vietnam came into view, surrounded by signs reading "Vietnam and Watts—It's the Same Struggle," and "Victory for the Vietnamese Revolution—No negotiations." These flags and slogans, held aloft by members of the Committee to Aid the National Liberation Front, were in violation of march rules, but no one, apparently, made a great issue of it.

One of the more radical of the community peace organizations, Tompkins Square Neighbors for Peace, a Lower East Side group, blossomed under an eight by 10 foot American flag that had, in place of stars, dollar signs and skulls. Behind them were posters with dollar signs dripping blood.

THE OUTSTANDING marching contingent was that headed by the Bread and Puppet Theater. A red papier maché grotesque of a bloated Uncle Sam, about six feet high, dominated the group. Two huge ghostly figures, presumably the attendants of the god of war, carried a stretchers upon which reposed the tangled remains of a life-size doll. A trumpeter, leading 20 persons wearing hideous, gray death masks, played the Marine Corps Hymn. A bizarre band materialized, clad in gray rags, playing a ghastly cacophony.

"No more war, no more war," chanted with meaning, followed behind. More union hats. District 65 of the Department Store Workers, now, as well as 1199.

Then came the pacifists, professional groups—teachers, welfare workers, artists, and others—and unaffiliated individuals. Folksingers Len Chandler and Barbara Dane were in the front rank, singing "Got to move when the spirit say move," a civil rights song. Three dogs passed, one leading a blind marcher. "Artists and Writers Demand: 'Stop the War in Vietnam,'" read a banner. Another line of baby carriages. A sign in Russian said "Stop the War," as did dozens in Yiddish.

FINALLY THE LAST contingent—students, marching in greater disorder than their elders, shouting a little louder: "We won't go," over and over "We won't go." To Vietnam. Another chant: "1, 2, 3, 4, we don't want another war, 5, 6, 7, 8, we don't want a fascist state." Again: "End the war in Vietnam—send the troops home." A girl carried a tired dog. A sign, in Arabic, said "Stop the War." Nearly every college in the city was represented. High school and elementary school students were out too in great numbers.

Near 36th St. several persons, presumably Cuban emigrés, attempted to tangle with the Puerto Rican marchers. Vincent Copeland, editor of the radical newspaper Workers World, was attacked. Paint was thrown at the front rank sponsors of the parade. Donna Allen of WSP was among those splashed. Eggs were thrown. Obscenity was spat. The Bread and Puppet Theater was attacked at 68th St. On the same street, where the parade turned toward Lexington Ave. for the rally, a middle-aged woman shouted hysterically, "Communists and homosexuals, Communists and homosexuals."

The entire block on 69th St., between Lexington and Park Ave., was a wheatfield of people straining to hear speakers made obscure by a faulty sound system. Until 6 p.m. the evening before it had been hoped that the rally would be held at the Central Park Mall. The city refused a permit and the courts upheld the decision—necessitating makeshift arrangements at the rally. The speakers' platform, hastily constructed atop a car, was a raft lost at sea. Many demons, traitors went home.

DAVID DELLINGER, editor of Liberation magazine and coordinator of the parade and rally, estimated the parade crowd as "25,000 up." He said: "The fact that this many people came out—despite great pressure for conformity—indicates just how unpopular this war is. If marches like this were held in Germany in the thirties, there probably wouldn't have been any World War II."

Dellinger introduced Muste, chairman of CNVA, who simply said: "The U.S. has no business being in Vietnam," and was stopped for over a minute with ringing applause and the chanting of "Stop the War in Vietnam." Muste declared, again to great applause, "The U.S. ought to get out of Vietnam unconditionally."

I. F. Stone, editor of the weekly bearing his name, said of the parade's detractors that "we do our country more good than a B-52 bombing attack on the people of Vietnam."

STONE WAS FOLLOWED to the platform by youthful Dixie Bayo, representing the Puerto Rican Independence group who delivered one of the most militant speeches of the afternoon. "The Puerto Rican people—victims since 1898 of U.S. Imperialist invasion—today greet the glorious people of Vietnam in their just struggle against the same invader," she said. "We are in solidarity with the Vietnamese people because we know the nature of imperialism."

Mrs. Allen of WSP said: "I must apologize [referring to traditional WSP methods of conducting protests] for having no hat, flowers and gloves. I didn't bring my hat, have no need of flowers and," she paused, "I think its time to take off our gloves. We have wanted to be ladies about this but we are going to have to take off our gloves and fight."

RUSS NIXON, former general manager of the GUARDIAN, said: "This has been a magnificent day because it has shown unprecedented unity in the fight against the war in Vietnam. . . . Many shades of political opinion cooperated in this parade and many differences of opinion are known to exist. Despite these differences there is a basic unity here . . . of people who feel the war in Vietnam must end."

Other speakers were Dave Gilbert of the New York Committee to End the War in Vietnam; Joe Martin, a McComb, Miss. civil rights worker; Christopher Koch, a radio journalist who recently made a two-week visit to the DRV; and Gilberto Gerena-Valentin, a leader of the city's Puerto Rican community. Not one politician spoke or sent a message to the rally.

The day ended at 6:30 p.m. with about 1,500 persons joining in the singing of "We Shall Overcome."

ON OCT. 15, the day before the parade, nearly 300 people attended a "speakout" against the war and the draft outside the Armed Forces Induction Center. At this meeting, in the city's financial district, at least 100 persons, kept at a distance by police barricades, shouted abuse at the speakers.

The most dramatic occurrence at the meeting was the public burning of his draft card by 22-year-old David Miller. He was arrested by FBI agents three days later under a new federal law making such an action punishable by up to five years in jail and a $10,000 fine.

Date of report Oct. 18, 1965

On Saturday Oct. 16, 1965 the Committee For The Fifth Avenue Vietnam Peace Parade, held such a parade down fifth Ave. from 94th St. to 68th.

The marchers went down to 69th St. then east to 3rd Ave. then north to 68th then West, where the speakers platform atop of a car equipped with a loud speakers system, was stopped between Lexington Ave. & Park Ave. in front of Hunter College.

According to a Police official the marchers numbered about 8,000 people, but the chairman of the Parade, and the one who opened the speaking end of the parade and introduced the speakers quoted as 25,000 to 30,000 people in the line of march and still marching as of 4 P.M. to 4:30 P.M.

This Peace demonstration was sponsored by all the Peace organization in the City, who not necessarily agreeing with one another on policy or how to end the war in Viet Nam, nevertheless for the purpose of this parade have all agreed that the slogan and and theme was to be "Stop The War in Vietnam Now".

Slogans, banners, placards etc, carrying the above slogans were very much in evident as were many vocal outbursts by the marchers.

There were also various grotesque figures depicting the brutal monster representing the U.S. and tall skinny figures, and sickly underfed caricatures representing Viet Nam.

Portraits of Vietnamese women carrying small children and fleeing from the U.S. soldiers and away from the Napham gas and Aerial bombings of their villages.

At the end of the March people crowded into 68th to await the speakers, in the meantime they were entertained by folk singers, guitar players, both Negro and white.

The sound system from the microphones were not working and the speaker apologized for the long delay and blamed it on Commisioner NEWBOLD MORRIS of the Parks dept. who refused them a permit to use the Mall in Central Park, and this was sustained by the Courts.

Young girls sang and played guitars also, followed by a lone woman singer, accompanied also by a guitarist.

In the meantime and from of the March Anti-groups were very much in evident, they too carried banners with such slogans as "Win in Viet Nam", and "Had our Fathers acted toward Hitler this way, Where would we be today" and "Better Red Than Dead", and "Treason" etc.

These Anti-pickets shouted as the marches walked along the entire route, keeping in stride with them and even when the parade ended on 68th they continued to shout insults.

When the speakers began to talk this continued so much so that when the Chairman introduced the first speaker, as a man of 80 yrs. or older, and who was associated with the peace movement most of his life, A.J. MUSTE, the Anti pickets booed and yelled and drowned out his words, but when he was able to be heard he urged these Anti Pickets to remain silent as a sign of respect under the Constitution which guarantees freedom of speech even though they do not agree with him.

But this did not silence the Anti pickets, and they continued to interrupt until the marchers sang songs to drown out their boos and catcalls.

Later on this Anti picket group was escorted toward Park Ave. by the police, and they could be heard from that area from time to time.

In the audience among the marchers were young boys and girls, old women, old men, mothers and fathers with small children in baby carriages, beatniks type boys and girls, sloppy dressed long hair, beards, Negro and White Chinese, Indian people (India), & well dressed people.

Photographers, newsman, T.V. stations N.B.C., A.B.C. reporters hundreds of police, plainclothesmen etc.

The marchers were enclosed in Police barricades and anyone outside of these barricades were ordered to move on, Hunter College area was crowded with the Marchers, Press, etc.

A few people had red paint spattered over them, JIM TORMEY a member of the Communist Party was one of these, as was a Press Photographer.

Following is a list of the speakers, A.J. MUSTE, I.F. STONE, a young Puerto Rican girl who spoke and urged in strong revolutionary tones the Puerto Rico be granted its freedom and Independence.

A Puerto Rican by the name of VALENTIN, who was defeated in the recent primary, also spoke in strong, emphatic, and deliberate tones, and urged that the U.S. get of Vietnam and compared that situation with the U.S. policy in the Civil Rights struggle in Alabama and Mississippi.

Another youth from Columbia College DAVID GILBERT spoke very forcefully about our intervention in Santo Domingo and Vietnam.

He also spoke about the Suciest sugar barons who formulated certain policies and are holding influential position to maintain these policies.

A Negro, who just returned from Africa only last night, and as he said he has been in contact with people holding official positions in every section of Africa, said that our actions in Viet Nam will have strong repercussions among the Africian people, and can only lead to wider misunderstandings, between our Country and Africa.

Another young Negro youth from the Mississippi Party, by the name of MARTIN, also spoke and condemned the U.S. intervention in Viet Nam and the current conditions in Mississippi and Alabama.

Some of the people gathered near the speakers platform were MIMI FRIEDLANDER, former Bronx County Organizer, JOE BRANDT of the "Worker" staff, MIKE DAVIDOW reporter for the "Worker", JIM TORMEY, PAULA from the Bronx.

About 6 P.M. the speaker said that they were still having trouble with the sound system, from the beginning it was not working properly and the technicians were constantly working on it, and there would be only two or three more speakers because they were using an auxiliary sound system and the batteries would soon go dead, he urged them to be brief.

Leaflets were distributed at this point, one of which stressed the Nov. 27 March on Washington and urged an attendance much larger than this.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

During the speaking intermission the Chairman announced that one of the speakers who was supposed to address us today, BOB THOMPSON a member of the Communist Party, and who was imprisoned under the Smith Act in 1954 and was brutally assaulted while in prison was found dead in his East Side apt. today.

This reporter learned of a meeting between [redacted] about 1:00 p.m., at 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois.

[redacted]

[redacted] related that he had had a long telephone conversation with [redacted] before the CCDBR Directors' Meeting held Wednesday, October 27, 1965, at 431 South Dearborn Street, Chicago, Illinois, because [redacted]

FRANK WILKINSON was in Chicago for the meeting. They discussed HUAC and the KLAN, and had a speaker (no name mentioned) head of SDS. So many people attended the meeting that they did not have enough chairs available.

[redacted] does not believe that those people who try to dodge the draft are cowards, and does not like the comments about these people in the newspapers referring to them as beatniks, communists, etc.

[redacted] showed an article by Professor HAVIGHURST, and also a letter by Professor HAVIGHURST, that appeared in the Sun Times on November 1, 1965, on the Editorial Page; also I.F. Stone's Weekly of November 1, 1965 which he is going to use as a mailing piece. I.F. Stone's Weekly may be obtained at the book store on Monroe Street, between State and Dearborn Street in Chicago. When discussing the death of BOB THOMPSON in New York, [redacted] stated that he knew BOB THOMPSON well and gave BOB THOMPSON's history, all of which had appeared in "The Worker".

[redacted] stated that he had to run because he had an appointment at 2:00 p.m., with [redacted]

[redacted] at 16th and Michigan Avenue, Chicago.

The first meeting CCDBR will have will be to help the National Committee to Repeal the Mc Carran Act.

"Canoga Park
Nov. 5, 1965

"On Oct. 26, 1965, the Committee to End the War in Vietnam held a meeting in the Emerson Room of the First Unitarian Church on 8th St. in L.A.

"The meeting was called to order by [REDACTED] at about 8:30 P.M.

"The following announcements were made;

"1. A Panel Discussion presented by CEWV on the 'Perspectives of the Anti War Movement' will be held at the Socialist Party Hall, 837 So. Parkview, L.A.

"2. CEWV fundraising at play 'In White America.' Tickets $3.00 per person. An after-theater party will be held at 952 N. Hobart Blvd.

"3. A 'Teach in' will be held on Nov. 12th at U.C.L.A. from 12 noon til 12 midnight. Some of the speakers taking part are: Professor MEYERHOFF, SI CASADY, BOB SCHEER, Cong. GEORGE BROWN, PHILIP KERBY, AARON KATZ of the Rand Corp., PAUL SWEEZY, Mr. SCHEINBAUM of the Center for Democratic Institutes in Santa Barbara.

"The young man from UCLA who made this announcement also said that the newly formed Vietnam Day Committee of UCLA was holding its first meeting at 12 noon Fri. Oct. 29th in the Economics Bldg. DERREL MYERS and PETE CAMAJO would be speaking there.

[redacted] gave the report of the Literature Committee. This committee proposed the following which was passed by the full committee: That there be a literature table at each meeting at which all the organizations represented in CEWV could sell their literature. She said I.F. STONES rebuttal to the White Paper on Vietnam and 'You Are Draft Age' by the War Resisters League would be ordered in quantity. [redacted] is in charge of literature distribution.

[redacted] then introduced PETE CAMEJO, who is in the Young Socialist Alliance and a member of the Steering Committee of the National Committee to End the War in Vietnam. He spoke on the National Coordinating Committee.

"PETE said that he felt that the strength of the anti war movement lay in their organizing on a National scale. Thru a committee like NCCWV they could become a real force. He said the NCCWV is striving for a goal of 50,000. He said if they can do

"this they can reach every family in the U.S. (He said that there were 25,000,000 families in U.S. and if each of the 50,000 distributed literature to 500 families they could reach every family in the U.S.)

"PETE said that we need to repeat the 'Bring the Boys Back Home' campaign of 1945-1946. He said at that time 12 - 20,000 G.I.'s protested in Manilla against U.S. Imperialism, 13,000 protested in Guam, 5,000 in Calcutta.

"He said hundreds of thousands of letters poured into the Senators & Congressman calling for the return of U.S. troops.

"He said the pressure worked and they were brought back home.

"PETE said about 200 groups have responded to the NCCEWV's call to the founding convention to be held in Washington, D.C. from Nov. 25 - 28.

"He said he was very encouraged by the large turnouts for the International Days of Protest demonstrations throughout the U.S. He said 30,000 took part in the one in New York. ^{b6}
^{b7c}

"He claimed the U.S. was the only country interfering in the Vietnam War.

[redacted] got a little upset that the source CAMAJO was using on the American G.I. protests against U.S. Imperialism was a Soviet publication. He reminded PETE that Russia had also intervened in the Hungarian Revolution.

"A short question and answer period followed.

[redacted] announced that the Santa Monica Evening Outlook articles on the Expose of the Extreme Left had been read into the State and National Congressional records.

[redacted] also asked those present to sign a petition which requested that a large parking lot near his [redacted] shop not have to be closed if there is no parking lot attendant on duty.

LA 100-66608

[redacted] reported on the motorcade which will leave for Berkley on Nov. 19th to join the Oakland Terminal demonstration to be held on Nov. 20th. The goal is 200 cars from this area. He said there'd be another planning meeting on this on Oct. 30th at the Socialist Party Hall at 10: A.M.

"The meeting was ajourned about 10:15 AM. The Steering Committee was instructed to meet at [redacted] apt. for the Steering Committee meeting which immediately followed the meeting reported above.

"Among those present at the CEWV meeting were:

All Sources utilized in this memorandum have furnished reliable information in the past.

In mid-1965, a source advised that captioned committee, then known as the Inter-University Committee for a Public Hearing on Viet-Nam, with headquarters at Ann Arbor, Michigan, contacted I. F. Stone, Washington, D.C., on May 5, 6, and 10, 1965.

A second source advised on July 2, 1965, that the IUC, during early May, 1965, was making arrangements for a "national teach-in" which was subsequently held in Washington, D.C., on May 15, 1965.

I. F. STONE

A third source advised on June 26, 1950, that in the mid-1930s, I. F. Stone became a member of the Communist Party (CP). The source stated Stone assisted the CP at that time by aiding in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

"I. F. Stone's Weekly" is self-identified as "an independent weekly published and edited by I. F. Stone..."

DEMONSTRATION ON FEBRUARY 26, 1966
AT WASHINGTON, D. C., SPONSORED BY
POVERTY WORKERS FOR PEACE

[redacted] U. S. Park Police, Washington, D.C., advised on February 25, 1966, that a permit has been granted to an organization known as Poverty Workers for Peace for a demonstration to be held on February 26, 1966. The demonstration will begin at 12:30 p.m. with speeches at the Sylvan Theatre on the Washington Monument grounds. The group will later march to the vicinity of the White House where they will picket from 2:30 p.m. until 5:00 p.m. They intend to present a petition to the President demanding an end to the war in Vietnam.

[redacted] stated that the above group was represented by [redacted] New York City, and that they were apparently connected with a poverty project in New York City known as Volunteers in Service to America (VISTA). In the application for the permit [redacted] stated there would be thirty (30) busloads of individuals participating and that they would have a program of speeches led by Walter Lively of Baltimore, Maryland.

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1966, that sixteen (16) individuals in four (4) cars departed Baltimore, Maryland, at 10:30 a.m. this date. Source stated that the group was led by Walter Lively of U-Join, described by source as a subsidiary of Students for a Democratic Society (SDS).

RE: DEMONSTRATION ON FEBRUARY 26, 1966, etc.

The SDS is a militant socialist oriented youth organization boasting of chapters on more than 90 college campuses with a membership of over 3,000.

Special Agents (SAs) of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on February 26, 1966, observed about sixty (60) individuals arrive in two (2) buses at the Washington Monument at approximately 1:00 p.m. Many of the individuals were observed carrying placards which read as follows:

"Bring the GIs home - Not coffins"

"LBJ - How about your commitment to the people in 1964 election campaign"

"Poverty Workers for Peace"

"War on Poverty Not People"

"Peace Not Poverty"

"War No More"

"LBJ Talks Peace But Acts War"

"Welfare Workers protest the War in Vietnam"

A leaflet was distributed which was addressed to President Johnson. A copy of this leaflet is attached.

At approximately 1:15 p.m., after a public address system was set up at the Sylvan Theatre, SAs of the FBI observed the following individuals participate in the program as speakers:

RE: DEMONSTRATION ON FEBRUARY 26, 1966, etc.

Larry Cripe
Walter Lively
Ray Kagan
I. F. Stone

Larry Cripe acted as moderator and made the opening remarks concerning the demonstration. He stated that they were $150 in debt due to phone calls and bus expenses.

Walter Lively, from Baltimore, Maryland, was second speaker and he condemned United States action in Vietnam. He stated that the United States should fight poverty, not the Vietnamese.

Ray Kagan was the next speaker and he was introduced as a social worker for peace from New York City. Kagan's remarks favored the poverty program over war.

The last speaker was I. F. Stone. Stone stated that "war is a menace" and that the people running the war in Vietnam are an "incompetent bunch." He indicated that there is need for much help in the poverty program as "we must lift up the colored people to our level or we will be dragged down to their present level."

A second source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 26, 1950, that in the mid-1930's, I. F. Stone became a member of the Communist Party (CP). According to the source, Stone has assisted the CP in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.

At the conclusions of the speeches, Larry Cripe made several announcements. The first of these was that this demonstration is "not a VISTA movement." He also announced that a rally was being held tonight at Radio Station WUST in Washington, D.C., sponsored by the Associated Community Teams (ACT). Cripe invited everyone to sign a petition which was being circulated and would be presented to President Johnson.

RE: DEMONSTRATION ON FEBRUARY 26, 1966, etc.

A third source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on February 26, 1966, that he had attended the speeches at the Sylvan Theatre beginning at 1:15 p.m. He stated that there were approximately 75 individuals in attendance, most of whom were young males. There were four (4) speakers who condemned the war in Vietnam and insisted that the United States should fight the war on poverty. Source stated that the demonstrators left the Sylvan Theatre at about 1:50 p.m. and traveled to the White House.

SAs of the FBI observed 100 to 120 individuals marching in front of the White House beginning at 2:30 p.m. Many of these individuals were among those previously reported at the Sylvan Theatre. These individuals marched in front of the White House singing various chants and at approximately 3:50 p.m., a small group of them presented the above-mentioned petition to a representative of the White House. At approximately 4:00 p.m., after singing the National Anthem, the above individuals discontinued the demonstration and departed from the area of the White House.

The third source, previously mentioned, advised that he had participated in the above demonstration in front of the White House, and that he estimated there were approximately 120 individuals there. He stated that the number of people involved in the demonstration had approximately doubled after they left the Sylvan Theatre. The source stated that these individuals marched on the sidewalk in front of the White House from approximately 2:30 p.m., until 4:00 p.m. They sang songs and chants. Several of these chants were as follows:

"No Force - Follow Morse"

"Fullbright Is Right"

"LBJ - How Many Children Have You Killed Today"

APPENDIX

YOUNG SOCIALIST ALLIANCE

The May, 1960, issue of the "Young Socialist" (YS), page 1, column 3, disclosed that during April 15-17, 1960, a national organization entitled "The Young Socialist Alliance" (YSA) was established at Philadelphia, Pennsylvania. This issue stated that this organization was formed by the nationwide supporter clubs of the publication YS.

The above issue, page 6, set forth the Founding Declaration of YSA. This declaration stated that the YSA recognizes the Socialist Workers Party (SWP) as the only existing political leadership on class struggle principles, and that the supporters of the YS have come into basic political solidarity with the SWP on the principles of revolutionary socialism.

A source advised on May 6, 1964, that the original YSA was an organization formed during October, 1957, in New York City by youth of various left socialist tendencies, particularly members and followers of the SWP. The leaders of this group were the guiding forces in the establishment of the national organization.

The source further advised on May 6, 1964, that the YSA is dominated and controlled on a national basis by the SWP through having SWP members comprise exclusively the National Executive Committee (NEC) and through an official SWP representative at all YSA NEC meetings. The YSA, in reality, is the youth and training section of the SWP and the main source of new SWP members.

The headquarters of the YSA are located in Room 631, 41 Union Square West, New York City.

The SWP has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

This document contains neither recommendations nor conclusions of the FBI. It is the property of the FBI and is loaned to your agency; it and its contents are not to be distributed outside your agency.

Mr. President:

February 5, 1966

We the undersigned workers of the War on Poverty are compelled to speak out against the War on Vietnam. It is as much our responsibility to speak out in this manner as it is to participate in this country's attempt to eliminate poverty.

The War on Poverty is absurd when it is accompanied by a War on Vietnam. The War on Poverty, a program designed to help realize political rights and to create social and economic opportunities for all people of this country, is not consistent with the War on Vietnam, a war which prohibits the Vietnamese people from realizing their very same rights and opportunities. It is unjust to seek the enfranchisement of all the people of the United States and to deny the right to vote to the people of Vietnam. It is unjust to seek to build a Great Society in our country and to destroy a potentially great society in Vietnam.

The present American policy is not furthering freedom; it can only lead to further senseless waste of human life. Under no conditions can the bombing of the civilian population of North and South Vietnam be justified. Our government must do all it can to stop the present course of events in Vietnam before it reaches the point where reconciliation is impossible.

In order to remain consistent with the goals of the War on Poverty and the Great Society and to keep faith with the Geneva Accords of 1954, the United Nations Charter, and precedents set at the Nuremberg trials, free elections should be held in Vietnam.

We do not think that the United States has done all it can to demonstrate a sincere desire for peace.

The Counterfeit Language of A Counterfeit Cause

When the Axis forces were driven out of Occupied Europe, and the Japanese out of Occupied Asia, no one worried about "winning" and "pacifying" the people. The defeat of their oppressors was enough to bring them into the streets cheering. This would also be the case in Vietnam if our government's propaganda line were true. If South Vietnam's people were free of a foreign invasion, if the Viet Cong were free of that invading Northern power, if they were free to enter only by fear and terror, there would be no question about winning the people. The only "pacification" necessary would be military victory. There would be no need to woo the South Vietnamese with promises of freedom if they were suffering under a foreign yoke. If the Viet Cong were foreign oppressors, all we would have to do is drive them out.

Fooling Them and Fooling Ourselves

The Honolulu conference and the Humphrey tour are only fresh strands in an old web of falsehood. The weaving of the war, begun under the French. One reason an old Vietnam hand like Mansfield is so appalled is because he remembers how he himself was taken in. Just six months before Dienbienphu, Mansfield returned with the first of his Senate mission to report, "The military prospects of the non-Communist forces in Indo-China are improving." The French military, then, like ours now, were exulting in body count. Gen. Westmoreland announced triumphantly that a search-and-destroy mission had killed 4,000 guerrillas and put the crack 320th division of the Viet Minh out of action. That was more than 12 years ago and we, like the French, are still winning in the same language. This is as true in the field of "civic action" as of the purely military. The language out of Honolulu was once heard, too, from the French. In Lucien Bodard's Humiliation we hear the French General Chanson talking in 1950 of the need to wage "a people's war" and saying "We must conquer the farmers by their hearts." It's still hashish because we, like the French, have allied ourselves with the landlords, the compradors and the native profiteers. Any real social reform would seem to our only allies hardly worse than a Viet Cong victory. They'll fight to our last dollar, and then flee with it to the Riviera.

Every word—whether pacification or democracy or freedom—had to be given a counterfeit meaning to suit the character of the forces with which we are allied. The Declaration of Honolulu promised "a genuine

Open Letter to the Soviet Embassy

Dear Ambassador Dobrynin:

In casting about for some way effectively to protest the Sinyavsky-Daniel trial, I decided the best way to have an impact on Moscow and to reach the grapevine of the new youth in Russia would be publicly to inform you that I am boycotting all functions at the Soviet Embassy until these writers are free. The trial disturbed all who remember the many writers liquidated under Stalin, and feel deeply the need to fight every regression toward that ugly past. We had been told labor camps had been abolished; now we learn that four different varieties are in operation and that the two writers have been sent to a "strict regime" camp for hardened criminals. The use in this trial of Article 70 of the Russian criminal code, which deals with "anti-Soviet propaganda," recalls the way the equally vague provisions about "counter-revolutionary crime" were used under Stalin against the best in your society while tale-bearers flourished. The barring of the court to foreign newsmen and to friends and relatives of the accused made a farce of the claim that the trial was open. And the conduct outside the courtroom of Komsomol toughs recalled the part the Komsomol played in hounding Pasternak. This fine flower of your party youth resembles the Fascistic vigilantes with which progressives have sometimes had to contend in this country.

—I. F. Stone

social revolution." So did Diem. He launched a National Revolutionary Movement as early as October 1954. Ky promised democracy. So did Diem. He had Brother Nhu launch a Personalist Labor Revolutionary Party dedicated to realizing "democracy at the level where people are fighting and working." That was in 1956—the year he also abolished election of village chiefs and set up concentration camps for political opponents. After four years of such model revolutionary democratic innovations, the regime was in such trouble that Kennedy had to rush Johnson out there to bolster Diem and promise him more "military advisers" to deal with the growing unrest. That's when Johnson—in the overstatement of the century—called Diem "the Churchill of Asia." (To match that we suppose Humphrey will soon be calling Ky the Napoleon of the Pacific.) The cast of characters changes but the tactics remain the same. When promises of social reform turn out to be false, the South Vietnamese ruling clique turns in new promissory notes to the U.S. Treasury. From 1955 to 1960 only 1.4% of U.S. aid to Vietnam went to help

In a personal conversation on March 9, 1966 Mr. Boudin stated that his law firm's contract with the Cuban Government was up in April of this year. He gave me no inkling whether his firm would be retained or not retained.

Mr. Boudin said that the firm's expenses, salaries, etc. are about $60,000 a year. I specifically asked if they still had the woman attorney [redacted] on the staff. He said they had to let her go - it was costing them money.

He again repeated that he and [redacted] would be better off by themselves from a financial viewpoint. They could run the office for $12,000 a year.

On leaving me Mr. Boudin said he was going over to see Joe Forer and Dave Rein. He was going to borrow the key to their library as he wants to do some research tonight. From there he was going to visit his son, [redacted] at the Supreme Court. [redacted] He is having dinner with [redacted] tonight. Tomorrow, Mr. Boudin will spend most of the day in the library of the Supreme Court.

[redacted] is on a week's vacation in Guadalupe, Mexico. Mr. Boudin is leaving for Cuba two weeks from now. He's returning via Madrid. He complained that the Mexican Government wouldn't allow him to transit Mexico from Cuba. He "wondered" if the U.S. Government had a hand in this.

Mr. Boudin said that I.F. Stone is making money on his weekly. He now has about 25,000 subscribers who pay $5.00 a year. This amounts to $125,000 and since Stone and his wife put the paper out they should clear at the least $60,000. He also told me that about two years ago Stone was put in jail for twelve hours on his arrival in Cuba. Mr. Boudin said he arrived the following day after Stone's release. Stone was "really scared" by the experience.

Ramparts Magazine

On March 3, 1966, a Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (SA, SFBI) observed a rally which was sponsored by "Ramparts Magazine", the Fifth Avenue Peace Parade Committee (FAPPC) and the Ad Hoc Committee of Veterans for Peace in Vietnam (AHCVPV) and which was held at Town Hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City from approximately 8:35 p.m. to 10:45 p.m.

Approximately 1400 people were in attendance at the rally.

The "New York Times", a New York City daily newspaper, in its issue of February 27, 1966, on page 22, Section 1, in an article by Lawrence E. Davies datelined February 26, 1966, at San Francisco, California, concerning "Ramparts Magazine" described it as a Roman Catholic lay magazine which has been in editorial hot water since 1962.

The article stated in part:

"Ramparts, in less than four years, has weathered storms of controversy within the Church including threats of legal action to try to block the publication of articles.

"Its editor in chief and publisher, while disavowing any original intention of making the Catholic hierarchy a target of criticism, commented in an interview: 'The Catholic Church enjoys such a good press now that nobody wants to be unkind to it. So the only people who can be critical are Catholics themselves.'

The "National Guardian" (NG) in its issue of March 5, 1966, in its Masthead, described Irving Beinin as being in charge of Business and Circulation.

A characterization of the NG is in the Appendix.

The Chairman of the rally was I.F. Stone, a Washington journalist.

I.F. Stone

On June 26, 1950, a confidential source advised that I.F. Stone became a member of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA) in the mid-1930's. The source stated that he secured information substantiating Stone's membership in the CP, USA from such CP, USA functionaries as Israel Amter and Jack Stachel.

Ramparts Magazine

Speakers who denounced our policy in Vietnam included I.F. Stone; Donald Duncan, Military Editor, "Ramparts Magazine", former Master Sergeant and a Green Beret, who served ten years in the United States Army, six years in its Special Forces and eighteen months in Vietnam; Stanley K. Sheinbaum, Ramparts Consulting Editor, an economist, Center for the Study of Democratic Institutions and former Campus Director, Michigan State University Vietnam Advisory Group and Sandra Levinson, a lecturer at the City College of New York and New York City Editor "Ramparts Magazine" who read a speech of Jean Lacoutre, Staff Correspondent of the French newspaper, "Le Monde".

Sheinbaum in his remarks in opposing our policy in Vietnam stated that complete investigation on his part in Cambodia reflected there is no Ho Chi Minh issue in Cambodia, inasmuch as there is no Ho Chi Minh Trail and also stated that the United States policy toward Cambodia is aimed at violating its neutrality with the ultimate goal of occupying and using Cambodia as a staging area in a war with China.

Ronald B. Ramsey, who as "Granny Goose", has taped pacifist propaganda for the Hanoi Radio, was observed in attendance at the rally.

On March 4, 1966, a confidential source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised that Donald Duncan, in his talk, stated that he was a former teacher of guerrilla warfare before he went to Vietnam, that he went to Vietnam with enthusiasm, believing that the United States was right in its policy in Vietnam.

He said that after he was there he and other soldiers began to think that the Viet Cong was right and that they were more dedicated than we were.

He stated that when he was discharged from the United States Army, he felt that the National Liberation Front (NLF) had the good will of most of the people of Vietnam.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Ramparts Magazine

He said that the United States would have to negotiate with the NLF with the thought of leaving Vietnam.

National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy

"The Worker", an East Coast Communist newspaper in its March 1, 1966 issue, on page 1, contains an article entitled "Drive to Elect Congressional Peace Majority."

The article stated:

"Millions of voters in all 50 states, will be asked during the coming months to pledge their support to congressional candidates who favor peace in Vietnam, the National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy disclosed last week.

"First target date of the campaign is April 30, when a Voter's March and a congressional districts' peace convention will be held in Washington, D.C.

"plans call for a march exceeding the 40,000 who participated under Sane's auspices, in the November 27th demonstration in the capital.

"The electoral conference is expected to include 3,000 delegates from every congressional district in the nation.

"Candidates will be asked, Sane announced, to agree to work for:

'Steps to scale down the fighting and achieve a cease fire.

'U.S. initiatives to encourage negotiations with all concerned parties, including the Vietcong.

'A settlement which permits the Vietnamese people freely to work out their own future.

'Use of international agencies to settle disputes among nations.

'Avoidance of military intervention in the affairs of other nations.

'Increasing use of our resources in constructive economic and social programs at home and abroad.

"Sponsors of the campaign will be a group of about 150 individuals, which Sane is now organizing.

"Public pressure is needed to move the Administration away from escalation, the Sane office in Washington declared in a statement outlining the scheduled actions.

"It cited, as a 'promising lever for pressure', the 'pre-election activities in the 1966 elections, an area in which the President is particularly sensitive.'

"The 'widespread questioning of the war by the public,' the statement said, 'has been reflected in Congress.'

"It suggested that the President's December 'peace offensive' was a response to the 'rising concern' of the people combined with the mounting cost in lives and resources.'

"Now the Administration and Congress must be shown that the voters are ready to support peaceful alternatives, Sane said.

"The convention, also on April 30, will discuss the Vietnam war and its 'domestic implications' and 'inform voters how to work in the 1966 elections and beyond.'"

The "National Guardian" in its issue of March 12, 1966 issue on page 1, contains an article entitled "Voters Asked To Back Only Anti-War Candidates", with a subtitle, "Sane Opens Peace-Pledge Poll Drive".

This article stated in part:

"The National Committee for a Sane Nuclear Policy has initiated a nation-wide voters' pledge campaign to support political candidates who 'work vigorously' for peace in Vietnam. The campaign will culminate April 30, when an estimated 3,000 delegates from across the nation will bring the signed pledges to Washington. A peace convention and possibly a demonstration will be held that day.

"The campaign, in terms of demands by other sections of the peace movement, was considered politically mild and addressed mainly to liberals.

"The project is sponsored by more than 75 educators, writers, churchmen and peace leaders. Co-chairmen are Norman Thomas and the Reverend William Sloane Coffin. Headquarters are: Voters' Pledge Campaign, 245 Second Street, North East, Washington, D.C. 20002. Sanford Gottlieb, political action director of Sane is coordinating the action.

"Gottlieb said the campaign was primarily aimed at gaining support from liberal elements - such as churchmen, unions, voluntary organizations - and that many peace groups would not be represented at the convention.

"Also he said, the campaign should not be misconstrued to mean that SANE is becoming involved organizationally in next November's elections. 'We simply desire to notify congressmen who are speaking out against escalation that we are supporting them', he said.

Synopsis:

Subject resides at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C. He publishes "I. F. STONE's Weekly" newsletter from his residence. Subscriptions to newsletter total approximately 25,000. STONE has criticized the current government's policy regarding the Viet-Nam war in his newsletter. During the past year he appeared and spoke at major rallies protesting United States participation in the Viet-Nam conflict. Comments made by him on such occasions set forth. In February, 1965, subject listed as a member of the National Council of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. In March, 14, 1966, issue of STONE's newsletter, he criticized Attorney General KATZENBACH for Attorney General's public release of March 4, 1966, regarding petitioning the Subversive Activities Control Board to require the W. E. B. DuBois Clubs of America to register as a Communist-front organization.

DETAILS: AT WASHINGTON, D. C.

I. RESIDENCE AND EMPLOYMENT

The "I. F. STONE's Weekly," issue of March 7, 1966, reflects that STONE resides at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C., and that he publishes "I. F. STONE's Weekly," a newsletter, from that address. This issue further indicated that the newsletter is published every Monday except in August, the last week in December and the first week in January and biweekly during July at 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.; that it is an independent weekly published and edited by I. F. STONE.

On March 9, 1966, it was learned that I. F. STONE is making money on publications of his weekly newsletter. He now has about 25,000 subscribers who pay $5.00 per year. This amounts to $125,000 and since STONE and his wife put the paper out they should clear at the least $60,000.

(WF T-1, 3/9/66)

II. STATEMENTS ON VIET-NAM

The March 8, 1965, issue of "I. F. STONE's Weekly" is devoted to a critical analysis of a recent "White Paper" put out by the State Department pertaining to the Viet-Nam war. Subject in his article states among other things that the State Department does not discuss matters frankly in the "White Paper." STONE stated "to do so would be to bring the war into focus as a rebellion in the South which may owe some men and material to the North but that it is largely dependent on popular indigenous support for its manpower as it is on captured U. S. weapons for its supply. The White Paper withholds all evidence which points to a Civil War."

"The Washington Post," Washington, D. C., newspaper on April 9, 1965, Page A-11, contains an account of a meeting held at American University, Washington, D. C., on the evening of April 8, 1965. Three hundred persons attended the meeting called by the Universities Committee on Problems of War and Peace to protest the Administration's policy in Viet-Nam. The newspaper account stated that I. F. STONE, editor of a weekly newsletter, called President JOHNSON's recent speech on Viet-Nam at Johns Hopkins University a "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" address, terming the first half a speech of war and the second part a speech of peace. The two parts when put together did not make sense according to STONE.

Further regarding STONE's speech at the above meeting, STONE summed up the recommendations of the other speakers that the peace movement get behind action to support the following:

Senator JACOB JAVITS', of New York, resolution that Congress go on record as wanting to negotiate a peace in Viet-Nam.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

Senator JAVITS' proposal that no more combat troops be sent to Viet-Nam by the United States without express Congressional approval on each occasion.

Bring pressure to force the State Department and the President to disclose to the public the exact wording of offers by the Viet Cong to negotiate.

(WF T-2, 4/9/65)

On April 17, 1965, subject was one of the speakers at a demonstration known as "Student March on Washington" sponsored by the Students For a Democratic Society (SDS) at the Sylvan Theatre on the Washington Monument grounds. It was determined that SDS had communicated with the National Park Service of the United States Government in January, 1965, requesting a permit for the use of the Sylvan Theatre on April 17, 1965. The letter stated that SDS had called for a march on Washington to dramatize the need to end American intervention in the Viet-Namess Civil War. At the height of this demonstration, which included picketing the White House, it was estimated that approximately 15,000 individuals were participating in the demonstration in the vicinity of the White House. Subject in his remarks to those gathered for the program at the Sylvan Theatre said to address the group was to almost lose respectability in this stuffy capitol. He pointed out it was wonderful that one Senator had the nerve to appear on the same platform this day. He commented that nothing could be better than this rally in view of America's reputation of the smell of burning flesh and napalm. He spoke at length regarding George Washington's farewell address, pointing out that Washington had warned against the overgrowth of the military and its establishing itself as a menace to liberty. He commented that our military establishment is overgrown in size by hate and fear. The men in the military, he commented, are decent like you and I but they are part of the war machinery. He added that little wars were needed for the military machinery. He said the people of Viet-Nam are like us.

Mr. STONE commented that in our relations with China there is a hatred of China and a desire to smash China. He commented that countries should observe good faith among each other. He commented that we can hurt China, we can destroy its people but we cannot destroy China itself. He indicated that in the present conflict we cannot go beyond a certain point or China will enter the conflict. He stated if we cannot handle the guerilla war in Viet-Nam how can we handle a war against 700,000,000 people.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WFO 100-22286

He stated the movement today towards peace is tiny, the movement toward war is sharp and unmistakable.

Mr. STONE stated "we" claim to carry on a crusade for democracy but we never offered a democratic solution to the people South or North Viet-Nam. He said the future of South Viet-Nam should be left to popular election. He pointed out that no combat troops should be sent to Viet-Nam without a joint agreement of Congress. We are not in Viet-Nam on behalf of the people there.

The money spent on missiles by the United States could never reconcile 80,000,000 deaths from nuclear war, he stated. He urged those in attendance that when they went back to their homes they should talk to fellow citizens regarding peace. He said for years we have imposed hatred and hunger upon people of Viet-Nam. Let us make the first move and extend our hand of friendship on this eve of Easter. Only such a relationship for peace will guide us to a common destiny.

(SAs of the FBI, 4/17/65)

SDS is a militant socialist oriented youth group which boasts of having chapters on more than 90 campuses in the United States and a membership of over 3,000.

The "National Guardian" of May 29, 1965, Pages 1 and 8, carried the following news item with a dateline, Berkeley, California:

"Speakers Denounce U. S. Policy at 35-Hour Meeting - 12,000 at UC teach-in on Vietnam."

The newspaper article states "that speaker after speaker excoriated American policy at the massive Vietnam protest teach-in, May 21 - 22, on the campus of the University of California."

STONE said that "all of this miasma about wars of liberation is a reflection of the military establishment looking for work to do we don't want a democratic government in South Viet-Nam - we want a military base."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The "National Guardian" is characterized in the appendix.

The July 12, 1965, edition of the "Harvard Summer News" which is published twice weekly under the auspices of the Harvard University, Cambridge, Massachusetts, Summer School, contained an article captioned "12 Will Lecture At 'Teach-In.'" The article stated the speakers would "rake the JOHNSON Administration over the coals in an all-night session in Sanders Theater," Harvard University, July 14, 1965.

The "Harvard Summer News" in its edition of July 15, 1965, stated that more than 2,000 persons had flooded Sanders Theater, Lowell Lecture Hall, and the surrounding area the previous evening "to hear I. F. STONE and other speakers berate Administration policy in Viet-Nam."

The article went on to state that STONE condemned the emotionalism of the speakers preceding him. STONE stated "but we can't go before the country, vilify the President and expect to persuade anybody." He said that "...undemocratic processes have governed our foreign policy. For democracy to work in foreign affairs, the peace movement must be sensibly organized..."

STONE called for "a withdrawal of American troops, a cease fire for 18 months or two years under the auspices of an international commission agreeable to both sides, and then free elections in both North and South Viet-Nam, with Communists permitted to run."

Regarding the above described "Teach-In," WF T-3 and WF T-4 on July 13, 1965, advised that the prime initiator of the scheduled "Teach-In" was the Harvard-Radcliffe Chapter, Students For A Democratic Society (SDS).

"The Worker" of October 12, 1965, Pages one and eight, carried the following news item: "Big Turnout Expected for 5th Ave. March." "More than 180,000 leaflets have already been distributed containing the call for the peace parade this Saturday at 1:30 p.m., it was announced at the weekend by the Committee for the Fifth Avenue Vietnam Peace Parade, of 5 Beekman Place. An extra printing of more than 50,000 leaflets was being rushed, the committee said, in response to a demand which indicates a growing interest in the parade."

WFO 100-22286

"The parade, which will begin at 94th Street and Fifth Avenue, at 1:30 p.m., and march to 68th Street, will wind up with a mass rally at 3 p.m."

The above article stated I. F. STONE, Editor of "I. F. STONE's Weekly" would be one of the speakers at the meeting.

"The Worker" is an East Coast Communist newspaper.

Regarding the above peace parade, the "National Guardian" of October 23, 1965, page six, under the news heading, "New York: Biggest anti-war rally ever in U. S.," stated "the largest anti-war demonstration ever conducted in the United States took place on New York's Fifth Avenue October 16, as an estimated 30,000 persons marched in opposition to American intervention in Vietnam. Organized around the general demand, 'Stop the war in Vietnam now,' every peace group and every radical political or student organization in the city cooperated in the planning and in bringing its members to the parade."

The newspaper article mentioned that "I. F. STONE, editor of the weekly bearing his name, said of the parade's detractors that 'we do our country more good than a B-52 bombing attack on the people of Vietnam.'"

On February 26, 1966, subject spoke at a demonstration sponsored by the "Poverty Workers for Peace" at the Sylvan Theatre, Washington Monument grounds. The demonstrators distributed a leaflet which was addressed to President JOHNSON. The leaflet attacked the current administration's policy toward Viet-Nam. The leaflet stated "we do not think that the United States has done all it can to demonstrate a sincere desire for peace. To achieve free elections for the Vietnamese people the United States can and must act unilaterally and immediately on the following proposals:

- "(1) Order an immediate cease-fire in Vietnam.
- "(2) End bombing in Vietnam permanently.
- "(3) End troop buildup in South Vietnam and neighboring countries.
- "(4) Declare our willingness to accept arbitration by the U. N.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WFO 100-22286

"(5) Declare our willingness to negotiate directly with the National Liberation Front and other groups concerned.

"(6) Declare our recognition that eventual withdrawal of all foreign troops is a prerequisite to free elections in South Vietnam.

"(7) Recognize the jurisdiction of the International Control Commission in South Vietnam.

"The foundations of the Great Society crumble with the loss of every life in Vietnam."

STONE in his speech stated "war is menace" and that the people running the war in Viet-Nam are an "incompetent bunch." He indicated that there is a need for much help in the Poverty Program as "we must lift up the colored people to our level or we will be dragged down to the present level."

(SAs of the FBI, 2/26/66)

On March 3, 1966, subject acted as Chairman of a rally sponsored by "Ramparts Magazine," the Fifth Avenue Peace Parade Committee, and the Ad Hoc Committee of Veterans for Peace in Viet-Nam, held at the town hall, 123 West 43rd Street, New York City, from approximately 8:35 p.m. to 10:35 p.m. The affair was attended by approximately 1,400 people. The purpose of the rally was opposition to United States policy in Viet-Nam. Subject was one of the speakers at the rally who denounced our foreign policy in Viet-Nam.

(SA of the FBI, 3/3/66)
(WF T-5, 3/4/66)

III. FOREIGN TRAVEL

Subject was issued passport number C-562102 on July 12, 1962, by the Passport Office, United States Department of State. That passport was valid until July 12, 1965. On June 2, 1965, subject submitted an application for renewal of his passport. His passport was renewed by the Passport Office, Department of State, on June 14, 1965, and made valid until July 12, 1967.

In subject's renewal application for passport, he stated he intended to depart from the United States on July 21, 1965, for four weeks "pleasure travel to Italy, Switzerland, France, and perhaps England." He advised he would leave the United States via the ship "Olympia" and return from abroad by air. Mr. STONE gave his permanent residence as 5618 Nebraska Avenue, N. W., Washington, D. C.

IV. MISCELLANEOUS

The February, 1965, issue of "Rights," distributed by the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee (ECLC) lists subject's name along with others as a member of the National Council of the ECLC.

(WF T-6, 4/1/65)

Page 199 of the "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published December 1, 1961, by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D. C., states as follows regarding "Rights:"

"A Communist front publication" which is "published monthly in New York by the ECLC."

ECLC is characterized in the appendix.

Subject's name was listed among other names entitled, "Partial List of Sponsors," on an invitation to a "Freedomways Salute to PAUL ROBESON" to be held on the evening of April 22, 1965, at the Hotel Americana, 52nd Street, East of Second Avenue, New York City.

(WF T-7, 3/31/65)

Freedomways Associates, Inc., is characterized in the appendix.

(U) PAUL ROBESON - WF T-8 in April of 1964, advised that PAUL ROBESON's Communist Party (CP) name was JOHN THOMAS. (C)

WF T-9 in June of 1950, advised that ROBESON was known to him prior to 1945, as a concealed Communist.

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

WF T-10 in June of 1955, advised that the Council of African Affairs (CAA) was dissolved and at the time of the dissolution PAUL ROBESON was Chairman of the organization.

The CAA has been designated by the Attorney General of the United States pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

Page two of "I. F. STONE's Weekly" of March 14, 1966, is devoted to criticism of Attorney General NICHOLAS deB. KATZENBACH for his public release on March 4, 1966, regarding the Department of Justice petitioning the Subversive Activities Control Board to order the campus-oriented W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America to register as a Communist-front organization.

STONE maintained Attorney General KATZENBACH's statement defending his action "combines the fallacious with the disingenuous." STONE in his article referred to Mr. KATZENBACH's remarks about his action concerning the DuBois Clubs when KATZENBACH stated, "Historically, Americans have the freedom to organize in dissent. At the same time, in accordance with the law, young people who might consider joining this organization are entitled to know its nature and sponsorship. This is a disclosure, not a criminal action. Registration does not imply illegality and does not curtail an organization's activities . . ."

STONE maintained "Mr. KATZENBACH knows better. The Subversive Activities Control Act of 1950, as TRUMAN protested in his unsuccessful veto, is an attempt to limit freedom of dissent. Young people do not need the FBI or the Attorney General to let them know what they are joining. Just where the DuBois Clubs stand in the spectrum of the Left is well understood. Those who agree with the Clubs have a right to join them. The effort to make the Clubs register with the Subversive Activities Control Board is more than a disclosure move. The act denies many rights to members of registered organizations, from the right to travel to the right to work in defense plants. Registration implies illegality and was intended by NIXON and HUMDT, the original sponsors of this law, to create an official blacklist, subjecting those on it to ostracism and loss of employment. Registration does curtail activity because it requires the registered organization to label its publications and broadcasts as 'communistic.' Registration is calculated to put them out of business and make marked men of their members."

EMERGENCY CIVIL LIBERTIES COMMITTEE

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The "Guide to Subversive Organizations and Publications," revised and published as of December 1, 1961, prepared and released by the Committee on Un-American Activities, United States House of Representatives, Washington, D.C., contains the following concerning the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee:

"Emergency Civil Liberties Committee

"1. 'The Emergency Civil Liberties Committee is an organization with headquarters in New York, whose avowed purpose is to abolish the House Committee on Un-American Activities and discredit the FBI. * The Committee finds that the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee, established in 1951, although representing itself as a non-Communist group, actually operates as a front for the Communist Party. It has repeatedly assisted, by means of funds and legal aid, Communists involved in Smith Act violations and similar legal proceedings. One of its chief activities has been and still is the dissemination of voluminous Communist propaganda material.'

'Frank Wilkinson was called as a witness when he appeared in Atlanta as a representative of the Emergency Civil Liberties Committee to propagandize against the Committee on Un-American Activities and to protest its hearings. In 1956, Wilkinson was identified as a Communist Party member by a former FBI undercover agent within the party. Summoned at that time to answer the allegation, his reply to all questions was, "I am answering no questions of this committee." This also became his stock reply to questions when he appeared during the Atlanta hearings. * Wilkinson has since been convicted of contempt of Congress and sentenced to one year in jail.'

'Disputing the non-Communist claim of the organization, the committee finds that a number of other individuals connected with the ECLC also have been identified under oath as Communists. ***'

(Committee on Un-American Activities,
Annual Report for 1958, House Report
187, March 9, 1959, pages 34 and 35)

"2. 'To defend the cases of Communist lawbreakers, fronts have been devised making special appeals in behalf of civil liberties and reaching out far beyond the confines of the Communist Party itself. Among these organizations are the  Emergency Civil Liberties Committee. When the Communist Party itself "is under fire these fronts offer a bulwark of protection."

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

The records of the New York Secretary of State, Albany, New York, show the certificate of incorporation of Freedomways Associates, Inc., was filed on March 2, 1961.

The Winter, 1965, issue of "Freedomways" is self-described as "A Quarterly Review of the Negro Freedom Movement," published by Freedomways Associates, Inc., 799 Broadway, New York City. This issue lists John Henrik Clarke as Associate Editor, Esther Jackson as Managing Editor and John L. Devine as Art Editor of the publication.

A source made available information on July 1, 1964, disclosing that [] attended the first and founding meeting of the American Institute for Marxist Studies (AIMS) which was held on December 19, 1963, and continued on January 10, 1964.

This source also made available information on August 14, 1964, disclosing [] is an "associate" of AIMS.

The Winter, 1963, issue of "Freedomways," page 44, states that Esther Jackson became one of the leaders of the Southern Negro Youth Congress (SNYC), which existed from 1937 to 1949. The SNYC has been designated pursuant to Executive Order 10450.

According to a second source, [] [] whom the source identified on October 14, 1964, as being a member of the National Committee of the Communist Party, USA (CP, USA).

On January 30, 1961, [] [] Philadelphia, Pennsylvania, advised that [] Jack Devine, mentioned on December 17, 1960, he was still in the CP and the CP is his whole life.

On July 24, 1963, a third source described John Devine as a CP member.

FREEDOMWAYS ASSOCIATES, INCORPORATED

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

On May 24, 1961, a fourth source advised that a report was given on "Freedomways" at a meeting of the National Board, CP, USA, held on that date. It was stated that the original plan called for the publication to be openly Marxist, but that it was later decided it would not be avowedly a Marxist publication. Editorials are in the hands of a mixed group of Marxists and non-Marxists. It was stated that the central purpose of "Freedomways" is to develop a theory and positive criticism of currents in the Negro movement, as well as to raise the level of understanding and discussion taking place in Negro life today and to project a socialist and pro-Soviet orientation.

On May 25, 1961, the fourth source advised that "Freedomways" was set up for the CP, USA, by James Jackson.

W.E.B. DU BOIS CLUBS OF AMERICA (DCA)

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

A source has advised that on October 26-27, 1963, a conference of members of the Communist Party (CP), including national functionaries, met in Chicago, Illinois, for the purpose of setting in motion forces for the establishment of a new national Marxist-oriented youth organization which would hunt for the most peaceful transition to socialism. The delegates to this meeting were cautioned against the germ of anti-Soviet and anti-CP ideologies. These delegates were also told that it would be reasonable to assume that the young socialist attracted into this new organization would eventually pass into the CP itself.

A second conference of over 20 persons met in Chicago on December 28-29, 1963, for the purpose of initiating a "call" to the new youth organization and planning for a founding convention to be held in June, 1964.

A second source has advised that the founding convention for the new youth organization was held from June 19-21, 1964, at 150 Golden Gate Avenue, San Francisco, California, at which time the name W.E.B. DuBois Clubs of America (DCA) was adopted. Approximately 500 delegates from throughout the United States attended this convention. The aims of this organization, as set forth in the preamble to the constitution, are, "It is our belief that this nation can best solve its problems in an atmosphere of peaceful coexistence, complete disarmament and true freedom for all peoples of the world, and that these solutions will be reached mainly through the united efforts of all democratic elements in our country, composed essentially of the working people allied in the unity of Negroes and other minorities with whites. We further fully recognize that the greatest threat to American democracy comes from the racist and right-wing forces in coalition with the most reactionary sections of the economic power structure, using the tool of anti-Communism to divide and destroy the unified struggle of the working people. As young people in the forces struggling for democracy, we shall actively strive to defeat these reactionary and neo-fascist elements and to achieve complete freedom and democracy for all Americans, thus enabling each individual to freely choose and build the society he would wish to live in. Through these struggles we feel the American people will realize the viability of the socialist alternative."

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

~~CONFIDENTIAL~~

The constitution further states that this new organization shall be a membership organization open to individuals, or if five or more people so desire, a chapter can be formed which shall in turn be guided by the policies and principles of the parent organization.

As of October, 1965, the headquarters of the DCA was located at 954 McAllister Street, San Francisco, California.

Over the Labor Day weekend, 1965, the DCA held a conference in Chicago, Illinois. According to a third source, a new slate of national officers was elected at this conference, which included Chairman Hugh Sterling Fowler II, (who, according to the third source, attended a CP cadre encampment held at Camp Midvale, New Jersey, in June, 1965, and following his election as Chairman of the DCA, attended another national CP cadre youth conference held on September 9-12, 1965, on a farm located in Northern Indiana, according to a fourth source); Director of Publicity Carl Ellenger Bloice (who was elected to the San Francisco County Committee CP in April, 1964, according to a fifth source); Educational Director Matthew "Dynamite" Hallinan (who, in June, 1964, was stated to be the Youth Representative on the Northern California CP District Board, according to a sixth source); Organizational Secretary Terence "Kayo" Hallinan (who, according to a seventh source, met in June, 1965, with the District Staff of the Illinois CP to discuss the proposed DCA Midwest Staff of the Illinois CP to discuss the proposed DCA Midwest Summer Project), and Treasurer Susan Phyllis Borenstein (who, according to an eighth source, has attended meetings of the Youth Club of the CP of Illinois during 1965 in connection with the DCA Summer Project).

Bureau investigation. Louis F. Budenz, self-admitted former Communist Party, USA (CPUSA) functionary, has stated that Stone was a member of CPUSA in the mid-1930's and was a communist as late as 1945.

In his writings Stone has defended the objectives criticized U.S. participation in the Korean War, and has

VOTERS' PLEDGES. Last Sunday, 75,000 Voters' Pledges were presented in Washington. The campaign will be continued until the elections in November. Pledges can be obtained from: Voters' Pledge Campaign, 245 Second St., N.E., Washington, D.C. 20002; Women Strike for Peace, 151 East 50th St., New York, N.Y. 10022; Greene County Women for Peace, 234 Xenia Ave., Yellow Springs, Ohio 45387. Each group's pledges contain a somewhat different statement.

Antioch CEWV reports that they are working on the SDS Draft test program and on the All-Ohio Rally in Columbus on the twenty-eighth. If any group in the area wishes help with either of these projects, call Rick Wadsworth (513) 767-1576.

FARM WORKERS ASSOCIATION STRIKE in Delano, California. Schenley went back on its agreement to negotiate with the NFWA--after a 30-day period during which there was supposed to be negotiating. So Schenley products should be boycotted again. The DiGiorgio Corp. refuses even to make a false agreement. Some of their products are S&W fine foods, Indian Rover, Blue Flag, White Rose, Tree-Sweet Fruit Juices. We hope soon to have a flyer giving the strike background and a complete list of products to avoid.

DETROIT (May 16). Robert Grimble came into the Eugene V. Debs Hall and asked for a book by Lenin. Then he lined three of the people present against the wall, called them "commies," and fired nine shots. Result: Leo Bernard (28) killed; Jan Garrett (22) and Walter Graham (19) wounded. All were Wayne State students and members of Young Socialists Alliance. It is important that the movement remain united in opposition to such brutal attacks on any part of it. Groups and individuals may send telegrams of solidarity and condolence to the widow: Mrs. Robert Grimble, c/o Detroit YSA, Debs Hall, 3737 Woodward Ave., Detroit, Michigan.

In the last several months DACC has received almost no contributions to support this newsletter. Some income comes from sticker and bookmark sales, but not near enough to send 850 letters every two weeks, even with volunteer help. If you find it useful, please support it.

SDS NATIONAL VIETNAM EXAMINATION. The enclosed exam was passed out at many draft examination centers over the country on May 14 and will be given out on the later exam dates. In this region, there were also demonstrations at Wayne State U., Ohio Wesleyan, Oberlin, U. of Cincinnati, and Dennison--that we know about. At Oberlin, 40 demonstrators blocked the entrance to the testing site; when they refused to move, the exam was moved to the gym. Excerpts from a letter by James Missey, professor of English at Dennison:

"This morning, my wife and I and a student demonstrated in front of the building where the selective service exam was being given. . . . Later two other students joined us in passing out the flyers: one of them had taken the exam and the other, in his ROTC uniform, had helped proctor it. . . . As demonstrations go, I do not know of a time when I've heard more sympathetic responses: there were of course the usual nasty remarks, but far fewer than I've ever know in the past."

Let's have action at every test center on the coming test dates!

Soon student records will be sent to the Selective Service System. At U. of Chicago, 350 students sat-in at the Administration Bldg. in protest of the University's subservience to the draft board. Columbia University will send in the student's record only at the request of the student but a petition is being circulated proposing a student election to determine whether any grades should be sent at all. NCC has been told that the faculty of the University at Buffalo will vote NOT to have the exam on their campus. Such actions should be encouraged at all universities and demonstrations should grow in number.

WEDNESDAYS IN WASHINGTON

Last week Peggy Champney, Marnie Dickinson, Mary Lib Letson and I, members of Yellow Springs Committee for Peace and Freedom and of Women for Peace, drove to Washington to participate in "Wednesdays in Washington," a plan sponsored by the Friends Committee on National Legislation (FCNL) to foster conversations with legislators about the war in Vietnam. We discovered that conversations were indeed possible; in fact, Washington is thinking of nothing else to judge by the talk overheard in congressional halls, elevators and dining rooms. It is a good time to go and speak our message, for no one knows exactly what to do and peace people have more facts about the situation than most people in the government. The trick is to present these facts, and the underlying moral issues, in an effective and friendly manner. We're still far from being experts, but we got a little practice! It's best to write ahead for appointments, we found. (The fact that we had led to the best surprise of the trip: Senator Gruening wanted to talk to us about how people in Ohio felt about Vietnam!) FCNL gave invaluable help both for the timid and the over-confident at a briefing meeting held on Tuesday evening at their headquarters (245 Second St. N.E.). We also used their office for phone calls to confirm our appointments the next day. We had over an hour with our 7th District Representative, Clarence Brown, Jr. (an approachable and very interested person who some day actually may be convinced--who knows?); an half-hour with Mr. Jollowitz, Senator Young's assistant, where we tried to present both support for the Senator's criticism of the Vietnam war and an appeal for more of his votes against the military; and numerous shorter visits with congressmen on both sides of the Vietnam controversy. In each instance we stressed encouragement for those who had spoken out against the war, or we politely made known our position and said we hoped the congressman would consider the other side. We came away with the feeling that this was awfully important--not that we had been so highly successful, but just that it's vitally necessary to present our position to our representatives. If you go yourself, you'll feel what we mean. Two carloads from Yellow Springs and Cincinnati areas are planning to go to Washington on May 25. If you can join them, notify Polly Brokaw in Cincinnati (961-4795) or me in Y.S. (767-9131).--JEAN PUTNAM

Telephone Tax

Have you refused to pay the Vietnam-provoked 7% additional war tax on your telephone bill? Six (now eight) families in Yellow Springs area have deducted this in paying their phone bills. The individual amount is tiny compared to Federal Income Tax. But in large numbers this could be a significant development, as it directly challenges both the Vietnam war tax and the use of a non-government agency to collect it. It could also be a valid exercise in overcoming that compulsive feeling that one MUST comply with every Government demand, else the sky falls in--a pervasive endemic psychosis.--H.C.

Correction: Veterans for Peace in Vietnam address is 127 W. 43d St., New York, N.Y. 10036. There are at least 12 groups in the country; they will be very glad to help any new group.

SUMMER PROJECT: In Cleveland, Sheldon Clark won the Democratic primary in the 23d Congressional District. Though he has the endorsement of the Democratic Party, it will be a tough campaign because of his outspoken opposition to the war and other stands. Anyone who wishes to spend part of the summer working on this campaign contact: Jean Robbins, 14712 Shaw Ave., East Cleveland, Ohio.

Reference is made to the memorandum dated July 23, 1965, at Washington, D.C., captioned as above, containing current data regarding Passport C-562102 issued to Mr. Stone and valid until July 11, 1967.

A Special Agent of the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI), on May 15, 1966, observed Isidor F. Stone at the Sylvan Theater, Washington Monument Grounds, Washington, D.C., at which time the "Voters' Peace Pledge Campaign" was in progress.

Regarding the above, the April-May, 1966, newsletter, "The Washington WSPer," self-described as published by the Women Strike for Peace, states "Vote with your feet on May 15 - Convention and March to climax Voters' Pledge Drive." It continues, "The Voters' Peace Pledge Campaign, a national effort to mobilize the widest possible opposition to the war in Vietnam, will be climaxed with a Convention and Voters' March on Washington, May 14 and 15th."

Stone was a speaker at the above event. He was introduced as the most important journalist in America today. Stone stated that he had just returned from Vietnam and Cambodia. He stated that from the way he sees it, he is very sorry for every American boy who has had to go to Vietnam and fight in the jungles. He stated that everything in Cambodia is fine today and communism there is contained. He stated that the independent thinking about Vietnam is that "We won't be defeated, but we can't win." "We will have to deal with the National Liberation Front, the people in Vietnam want our soldiers to get out but they want our aid to stay."

A source, who has furnished reliable information in the past, advised on June 17, 1950, that in the mid-1930s, I.F. Stone became a member of the Communist Party (CP). According to this source, Stone assisted the CP in the preparation of attacks on enemies of the CP.
